

New Bronkhorst Distributor in Australia

With this joint statement, Bronkhorst High-Tech B.V. in Ruurlo (The Netherlands) and AMS Instrumentation & Calibration Pty Ltd in Boronia (Victoria, Australia) are pleased to announce their new partnership. As per December 1st 2018, AMS has been assigned to be the official distributor for Australia and territories.

Having many years of experience in the field of instrumentation and calibration equipment, AMS will be an excellent partner for the representation of Bronkhorst, introducing their Mass Flow and Pressure Measurement and Control Equipment in Australia and providing technical and logistical support for these products.
